UMBRIA

ITALY

Located in the middle of Italy, this retreat takes in central Italy, from Orvieto to Bracciano to Assisi. I will pick you up at the airport in Rome and drive you to our destination. This retreat will consist of no more than 5 people.

Together, on the first day, we will map out our ten days together. From spiritual direction, to coaching, to prayer and practicing the daily Lumen, to conversations, to allowing you space to contemplate and explore. It's your choice of how much or how little you want. Have some places you would like to visit and see. Let me know, I will get you there. My role is to walk alongside you and provide for a space to renew and revitalise. I am your driver and guide if you want to explore the region, towns like Assisi, or take a day trip to Rome. Your meals are covered, home cooked each day.

This is ideal for those wanting to spend time in a unique setting to connect and deepen their relationship with God, alone and with others. While there is the option to be guided throughout our time together, it is encouraged that you do take some time to yourself to engage with God on your own.

A WORD FROM ROB...

My name is Rob Petrini and I started Terrae Lumen, (Latin for “light of the world”), with a heart to see people grow in their faith journey. What better way to do that than by traveling the world.

As a Pastor at Hutt City Baptist Church in New Zealand, having pastored in Australia, Italy and the United States, and being an Organisational and Executive Coach, trained through IECL and serving non profits like the Wilberforce Foundation and Arrow Leadership New Zealand, my life has revolved around building up and encouraging personal and spiritual growth. I have lived over a decade in Europe, living in Rome and London, while having spent significant time traveling and working in Ireland and Spain. My love of travel, history and bringing the Bible to life have all come to an intersection, here at Terrae Lumen.

I will be walking alongside you on this retreat, and doing what I can to make sure you get the most out of it, whether it is coaching you need, prayer, conversation, or to be left to your thoughts. Whiel there will be some structure to the day, that will be something we work out together.

I look forward to journeying with you!
