A WORD FROM OUR TOUR LEADER

My name is Rob Petrini and I started Terrae Lumen, (Latin for “light of the world”), with a heart to see people grow in their faith journey. What better way to do that than by traveling the world.

As a Pastor at Hutt City Baptist Church in New Zealand, having pastored in Australia, Italy and the United States, and being an Organisation Coach, trained through IECL and serving non profits like the Wilberforce Foundation and Arrow Leadership New Zealand, my life has revolved around building up and encouraging personal and spiritual growth. My travel experience comes from having worked for two major airlines and in my continued work supporting NZ Travel Brokers. I have lived over a decade in Europe, living in Rome and London, while having spent significant time traveling and working in Ireland and Spain. My love of travel, history and bringing faith to life have all come to an intersection, here at Terrae Lumen.

With the help and expertise of Katrina Harding Travel, I lead all the tours we offer. Our tour groups are small, allowing for a more personalised experience. We are open to tailoring tours for your group. Do not hesitate to contact us for more information and how we can help you and your group.

I look forward to journeying with you!

WHAT OUR TIME TOGETHER WILL LOOK LIKE...

June 3 Make your way to the hotel in Rome. Afternoon meet and greet, and overview of what's to come. We'll take the time today to get acquainted and prepare for the coming days. Later that evening will have a night walking tour around some of the sites of the eternal city.

June 4 This morning we begin by heading to the Colosseum. We will skip the lines and be given a full tour of the arena with an overview of the building and have access to areas not open to the public. From there we head across to the Forum, taking in the ancient site of the emperor's palace, the senate and market areas. We will head under Piazza Navona and see the remains of Domitian's Circus. It's all about imagery today as bring into focus the Book of Revelation.

June 5 Today we engage with the religion of Rome and how much of an impact it had on the development of Christianity and imagery of the Book of Revelation. We will visit the Pantheon, St Ignatius Church, we will go under St Clementine's church and explore the Roman cult of Mithras, and lastly, the Basilica of St John Lateran. The afternoon will be free for you to explore the city.

June 6 From Rome we will fly to Athens. While the Greek world was overshadowed by the Roman Empire, much of the underlying symbolism found in the book of Revelation has a strong Greek foundation. In the afternoon we will head up to the Acropolis, the Temple of Zeus and the Agora, where we be personally guided through the ancient sites. Later in the evening we will do a walking tour of the city.

This is a study intensive tour as we unpack together the Book of Revelation. It will involve a lot of walking, so please be prepared. There will be a number of talks each day at each of the sites visited, as part of the biblical study. While much of the tour is planned, there will be free time to explore other aspects of the areas we visit.

June 7 Today we spend the day in Delphi, exploring the impact this important site had on the ethos of the ancient world. Understanding the Book of Revelation means understanding the world in which those first readers of the letter were living in.

June 8 Today we take the ferry to the Island of Patmos where the author of the Book of Revelation, John, was exiled to, and from where he wrote the book. We will visit the church dedicated to St John. We spend the evening working through the study together.

June 9 We will visit the church dedicated to St John. We spend the evening working through the study together.

June 10 Today is a chill day. Sitting on the island where the book of Revelation was written gives us time to stop and just be. A free day to rest, relax, and an opportunity to talk and discuss.

June 11 We take the ferry across to Turkey and to Kuşadası, our base from where we will access the ancient city of Ephesus, the primary recipients to which the Book of Revelation was written to.

June 12 Today we spend the day at the ancient site of Ephesus. While famous for it being the city to which John's Revelation was written to, it was also the city centred around a number of other biblical books. There's a lot to unpack here, and we will do it walking in the dust of history!

June 13 From Kuşadası we head to İzmir, known in the Book of Revelation as Smyrna. Today we will explore this city and its ancient past.

June 14 Today is a travel day as we fly from İzmir to Istanbul. Depending on how we are all feeling, we will plan an evening walking tour of Istanbul.

June 15 Today we engage with the ancient Byzantine capital, from the Hagia Sofia to the Royal Palace, and its impact on the growth of the church in the Middle Ages. We end our tour with the final chapter of Book of Revelation in Istanbul.

June 16 Today we say our farewells as we check out of our hotel and go our separate ways. Let us know and we can help you make arrangements to get you to your next stop.
